Man on church grounds hit by stray bullet:

Car chase & gunfight in Park Boulevard area

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

On Thursday evening, two vehicles were involved in a car chase and gunfight in West Sacramento. A bystander on the property of Trinity Presbyterian Church was injured with a gunshot wound to the face.

The News-Ledger's Daryl Fisher saw the two suspect vehicles turn north on Park Boulevard from Stone Boulevard (possibly coming from Jefferson Blvd.) and reports one that one vehicle chased the other at high speed onto Deerwood.

Shortly after, he saw them speed back southbound on Park, and turn right on Stone toward Harbor Boulevard, with police shortly behind them.

Another resident reported the suspects' cars entered the Park Boulevard area from 15th Street.

The suspects were not caught.

Sergeant Nathan Steele of the W.S.P.D. said the incident started at just before 5 p.m., when police responded to the report of gunshots near the church at Park and Westacre Road.

"Officers arrived on scene and located an uninvolved victim who sustained a gunshot wound to the face," reported Steele. "The victim, a male in his 40s was transported and is in serious but stable condition at a local hospital."

He added:

"Numerous witnesses reported that two vehicle were seen in the area chasing each other and firing several shots. The first vehicle was described as white lowered pickup (possibly a Nissan) with silver rims. The second vehicle was described as a dark grey SUV similar to a Dodge Durango. The suspects were described as African American males believed to be in their 20s."

On Monday, Steele said the gunshot victim had been released from the hospital and was recovering at home. No arrests had yet been made.

He asked that anyone with information call Detective Eric Palmer, (916) 617-4935.

Horse riders clean up 'Honda Hills'

From Don Schatzel
West Sacramento Trail Riders Association

The West Sacramento Trail Riders Association completed their annual clean-up of the "Honda Hills" area by the corner of Jefferson Blvd. and South River Road on Feb. 26.

The group is , an organization of community members dedicated to the love of horses and the protection and preservation of rural lands

WSTRA President Jason Williams announced that over 20 club members dedicated more than 100 hours, plus the use of their trucks, trailers and tractors to pick-up over 40 yards of trash, couches, mattresses, wood, bottles, cans, carpet remnants and 82 tires from the publicly-owned area.

"We do this several times a year and we are happy to be able to clean up this area to beautify our community," said Williams. "It is hard work but a fun activity for our WSTRA members."

For additional information and pictures about WSTRA search for "WestSacramentoTrailRidersAssociation" on Facebook. The group meets on the first Monday each month at Wicked West Pizza at 7 p.m., and new members are welcome.

STING: underage 'decoys' ask adults to buy them alcohol

The West Sacramento Police Department joined about 100 agencies statewide in "Operation Shoulder Tap," a decoy operation meant to catch adults who buy alcohol for minors.

Local police visited 12 locations for the project on Friday.

"Under the program, a minor under the direct supervision of a peace officer will stand outside a liquor or convenience store and ask patrons to buy them alcohol," explained Sgt. Nathan Steele of the W.S.P.D., in a press release. "The minor indicates in some way that he or she is underage, and cannot purchase the alcohol. If the adults agree to purchase alcohol for the minor, officers then arrest and cite them for furnishing alcohol to the minor. The penalty for furnishing alcohol to a minor is a minimum $1,000 fine and 24 hours of community service."

Eight adults were arrested from among the 78 subjects contacted during the decoy operation.

It was the first such statewide sting in California history, reports the state's Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

Man critically hurt after accident on West Capitol Ave.

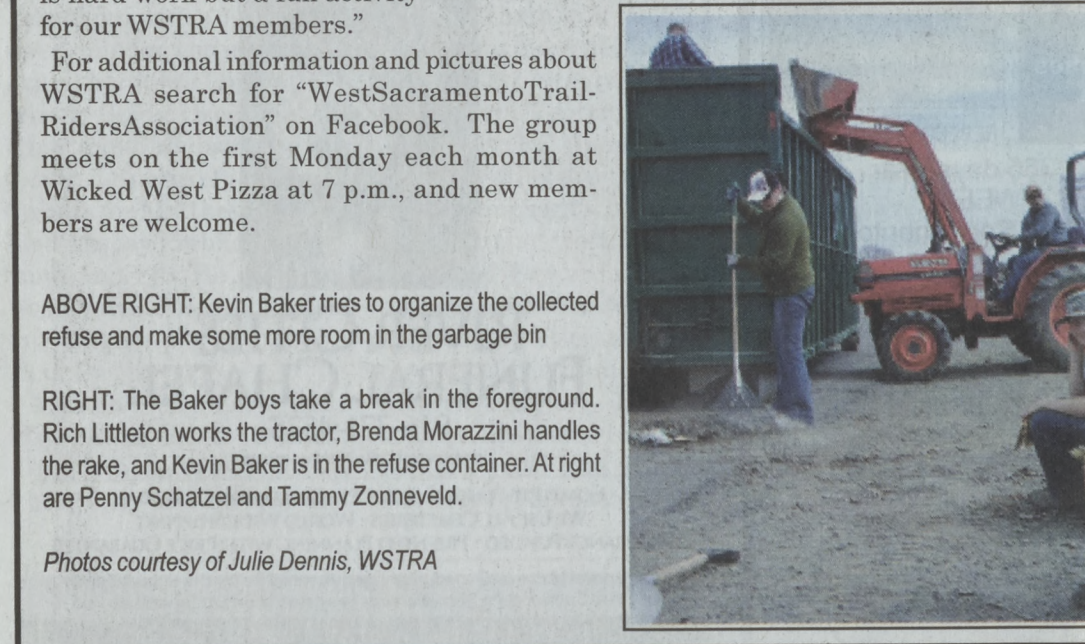
At about 5:30 a.m. Friday, a man in his 20s was hit by a car on the 4200-block of West Capitol Avenue in West Sacramento.

He was taken to a trauma center by ambulance

As of Monday, reports West Sacramento Police Sergeant Nathan Steele, the man remained in critical condition with life-threatening injuries.

According to the West Sacramento Police Department, witnesses report the man had been "walking in and out of traffic" before he was hit, and the driver showed "no signs of impairment." The driver was interviwed and released. The investigation is continuing.

Any witnesses are asked to call the W.S.P.D. at (916) 375-6474.



Police vs. fire

Helped by a made free-throw with 3.4 seconds left on the clock, the West Sacramento Firefighters beat the West Sacramento Police Department on the basketball court 53-52 in overtime on March 9. The contest was "back and forth," with police hitting several shots from beyond the arc.

The "Safety Slam Jam" match between the two departments took place in River City High School's gym, as a fundraiser for the school's athletic programs. The event is planned to return next year.

Two-alarm fire

An apartment complex was evacuated after fire broke out on March 8.

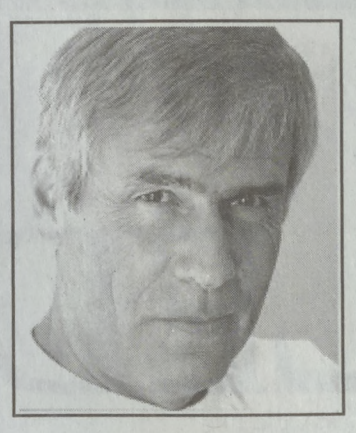
The blaze was reported at 6:38 a.m. on the 300-block of 4th Street.

"Upon arrival, crews encountered a large volume of fire and heavy black smoke coming from a strip apartment," reports the West Sacramento Fire Department. "Units began an aggressive fire attack and full evacuation of the building. One victim was located with burns, and was transported to the hospital in stable condition. Automatic aid from both Sacramento Fire Department and Davis Fire Department arrived and assisted in fire ground operations."

Also helping were local police, PG&E and the Red Cross.

The cultural divide between Seattle & West Sac

My Back Pages



By Daryl Fisher

Awhile back I decided that since I'm a writer (well, kinda) that I would join myself one of those popular Internet writer's forums where people who like to put pen to paper get together online and pretend they're a whole lot smarter than they actually are. And here is an example of what I'm talking about:

"So," wrote a new writer's forum acquaintance of mine (I'll call her Lynn), "what kind of writing do you do?"

"Well," I explained, "I write a column for my hometown newspaper in West Sacramento, California. It's called the News-Ledger."

"You mean one of those little newspapers that only come out once a week?"

"That's right. It's been in business since 1964."

"And where exactly is West Sacramento? I'm up in Seattle as you know. I was born and raised here."

"Well, it's right across the Sacramento River from the big city of Sacramento, which of course is the state capital of California. We used to be a very rural community with a small town atmosphere, but we've had a lot of development the past few decades, so much of that has changed."

"Wow, it sounds like we come from very different worlds, Daryl, and are probably very different people, too. Anyway, I love Seattle! It's big and cosmopolitan and full of life and we have dozens of fantastic little coffee shops where writers can gather and exchange ideas and read our works to each other. Do you have anything like that where you live?"

"Not really," I admitted. "In fact, at the La Bou's where I get my morning croissant, I'm on a first name basis with the homeless lady who always stands outside and drinks her morning coffee there."

"So, tell me, Daryl," wrote Lynn, "apparently not interested in discussing homeless people, "how many readers does your little newspaper have?"

"Oh, about two thousand I guess, if it's a good news week and we have something exciting on the front page along with a lengthy police log section and lots of obituaries."

"I see. And what exactly do you write about in your column?"

"It's mostly a humor column," I explained, "although I do get serious now and then when I get the urge."

"And how long have you been writing it?"

"More than 20 years now."

"Really? Aren't you getting tired of it after all that time?"

"No, but I'm sure some of our readers are."

"But don't you ever do any serious writing?"

"What do you mean?"

"You know, like fiction, or poetry."

"No, I've never been too interested in fiction, although I did write a novel awhile back about the year I spent in Vietnam, but that was more cathartic than it was great literature. And the only poems I've ever written were just some `Roses are red, violets are blue' ones."

"Really? Like what?"

"Oh, like `Roses are red, violets are blue, if I had a million bucks, I'd look a lot better than I do'. That's one of mine. Just little poems like that."

"Well," wrote my new literary friend, "if you don't write poetry, do you at least read it?"

"Oh yes, I've read quite a bit of poetry over the years."

"Great, now we're getting somewhere! So, why don't we discuss poetry for awhile? For instance, what do you think was the greatest love poem ever written? Wait, let me go first, okay? I'll tell you what I think was the greatest love poem ever written, and then you can tell me what you think it was."

"Okay."

"Alright," wrote Lynn, "I think the greatest love poem ever written was by William Shakespeare of course, who knew more about the English language than any man who ever lived, and it's his Sonnet 116, and it goes like this:

Let me not to the marriage of true minds
Admit impediments. Love is not love
Which alters when it alteration finds,
Or bends with the remover to remove:
O no! it is an ever fixed mark
That looks on tempests and is never shaken;
It is the star to every wandering bark,
Whose worth's unknown, although his height be taken.
Love's not Time's fool, though rosy lips and cheeks
Within his bending sickle's compass come:
Love alters not with his brief hours and weeks,
But bears it out even to the edge of doom.
If this be error and upon me proved,
I never writ, nor no man ever loved.

'Afterwards, the compromise.
Bodies resume their boundaries.
These legs, for instance, mine.
Your arms take you back in.
Lips admit their ownership.'

"Okay, Daryl, it's your turn now."

"Well," I wrote, "I think the greatest love poem I've ever read was by a German poet named Maxine Kumin, and it goes like this:

Afterwards, the compromise.
Bodies resume their boundaries.
These legs, for instance, mine.
Your arms take you back in.
Lips admit their ownership.
The bedding yawns, a door
Blows aimlessly ajar,
And overhead, a plane
Singsongs, coming down.
Nothing has changed, except
There was a moment when
The wolf, the mongering
Wolf who stands outside
Us all, lay lightly
Down, and slept.

"But Daryl," wrote back Lynn, "that poem isn't about love at all! It's about sex! And you do realize, don't you, that love and sex are two very different things?"

"Hey, Lynn," I quickly wrote back, "I think we may have hit on another one of those big differences between living in Seattle and living in West Sac!"

RCHS doesn't look far for new coach with prep, college resume

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

Steve DaPrato has been living near River City High School most of his life, a West Sacramento native "born and bred." But this year, he takes the reins of the school's football program for the first time.

River City has posted a couple of winning seasons in a row before tapping DaPrato as new head coach to fill a vacancy. The News-Ledger talked to him by phone, and caught up to him as he worked with a group of students learning to run the hurdles on the school track as an assistant track coach to Nancy Williams.

"I'm very impressed with the kids and the attitude on campus," DaPrato said of the Raider football program.

As a young athlete, DaPrato's own football career at Christian Brothers High School was pretty short.

"I played football my freshman year, got a serious injury, and never played again," he said. "I was a track athlete at Sac State – not a star, I was just one of the guys on the team."

DaPrato was a student teacher at James Marshall High School in West Sac, and then went to coach at Elk Grove High – now well-known for its "Thundering Herd" football team.

"We won the first section title in the school's history in 1984," said DaPrato.

Following that were some years with Modesto Junior College, where his teams won four bowl championships.

His 1995 team at Modesto was ranked fifth in its division nation-wide, scoring an average of 48.5 points and rushing for 525 yards per game, reports RC Assistant Coach Chris Baker.

STEVE DAPRATO: impressed with RC football team but wants to make some changes

More recently, DaPrato spent 10 years at Chabot College in the Bay Area, where he served variously as football coach, track coach and athletic director, before retiring recently.

He told Coach Baker why he came out of retirement to try his skills at River City:

"Obviously, the need and situation prompted me to talk to Coach Baker," quoted Baker. "(Baker) is a friend, colleague, and relative by marriage. I just felt that River City needs to move to a college-type offense to give everyone a chance to shine."

DaPrato wants to split the RC players into more distinct squads for offense and defense, to better learn their positions.

"What most high schools do and what River City was doing, is that you have an 'offense day' and a 'defense day'," he told the News-Ledger. The players alternate learning each role.

"At the college level, you can't do that. The best way to teach the players is to have them make a choice, and play offense or defense, and teach them that. You script your practice for offense and for defense. Although some of the best athletes will do both."

He said he will coach all quarterbacks, from incoming eighth graders to the varsity QB.

"In the past, we've been a smash-mouth, wedge blocking team, and that's got its place, especially within the five-yard line," said DaPrato. "But we're going to have an extremely varied offense."

The biggest thorn in the side of RC football?

"The biggest problem I've seen is the academic performance," answered the coach. "You can't lose 30 percent of your team (to academic ineligibility) every year and be good. That's the only part of the culture that needs to be changed here. Yet, I've met with the counselors and they're as good as I've seen at the college level. It's the students and their parents."

How good can the football program at RCHS get?

"I think the sky's the limit," answered DaPrato. "Everybody has to get on board. There are plenty of athletes in the area. Right now, it's a one-high-school town."

He said he has been inspired by the play of the school's girls basketball team, drove deep to the playoffs this year..

"If the football team can play as hard as those girls, we'll be very good," said DaPrato. "That's really what you want all the kids to do – play hard."

RC tennis starts season with five wins & one loss

From River City H.S.

As of March 11, the River City High School tennis team is off to a 5 win, 1 loss start in the 2012 season.

The Raiders began the new campaign with a 7-2 victory over Amador, getting singles wins from Jai London (#1 girls), Cindy Oseguera (#2 girls), and Michael Lee (#2 boys). Successful varsity debuts for Matthew Tagupa and Akshay Prabhakar at #2 boys and Lily He with veteran Sarah Yang at #2 girls highlighted the day's doubles play.

A tough 6-3 win over Bear River came next. London, Oseguera, and Lee repeated their singles victories and Mary Neverov and Zoi Saetern cruised to a 10-1 win in mixed doubles. In girls doubles, Christine Maltez and Sarah Yang (#1) and Avneet Singh and Lina Vang (#2) both won 10-2.

After two more nonleague wins, an 8-1 victory at Bret Harte and a 7-2 triumph at Argonaut, RC opened the Sierra Valley Conference (SVC) campaign with a 9 to 0 shutout at Galt. Terry Vang and Edward Xu won the boys singles contests and London and Oseguera continued their winning ways in girls singles. In boys doubles, Lee teamed with Zoi Saetern at #1 and Tagupa and Amran Khan took the #2 match. Maltez and Mariana Contreras breezed to victory in the #1 girls doubles position, Singh paired with varsity rookie Sonia Bola for a 6-0,6-0 win at #2, and Prabhakar and He crushed their opponents in mixed.

The lone loss for the River City came at Escalon on March 9. The Raiders and Cougars have now played twenty times over the years and the 8-1 Escalon win evened up the all-time series between the two Sac-Joaquin Section rivals at ten wins apiece. Singh and Lina Vang secured the day's only match win for RC, a 7-5,6-2 victory at #2 girls doubles.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY NOTES

The Sacramento river registered 17 feet 5 inches, U. S. gauge at the Southern Pacific bridge yesterday. This is a material raise since a week ago when the gauge showed 12 feet 6 inches. Melting snow in the foothills is believed to be the cause for the late raise.

"Hip-at-Home" is not an imitation of the Hippodrome of Sacramento, but something that entirely outclasses anything pulled off at the big theatre. This show will be presented by the young folks of Washington on Friday evening, April 7th, at the public school building, and has been in course of preparation for several weeks. Some snappy bouts will be put on by the youngsters for their parents and friends.

After an absence of several months in Reno, Verne Pankost arrived in Washington last Thursday morning. He will remain during the summer and will likely engage in the fish business.

Charles Newton has been confined to his bed for several days and has been under the care of physicians. Yesterday he was somewhat improved but not entirely out of danger.

Peter McGregor is able to be out and around after a serious spell of flue, followed by pneumonia. He was confined to his bed for over two weeks.

Enforcement officers searched the premises of Joe Beltrami yesterday but were highly disgusted when they were forced to leave without finding any liquor of any kind that did not come within the Volstead law. Lately there has been no trouble i nWashington or in this section of Yolo County.

Last Monday W. F. Smith was tendered a surprise party at his home on Elizabeth street on the occasion of his 74th birthday. His daughter, Mrs. Lottie Miller, arranged the surprise and Jack Moran was chief cook and master of ceremonies for the occasion. Several guests assembled at the Smith home and enjoyed a great feast, after which an evening of entertainment was spent by the guests, among them being E. Walters and wife of Sacramento, the latter being a niece of Mr. Smith; John Allerton and wife, G. Losier, Jack Moran, Lottie Miller and children. Mr. Smith is hale and hearty and except for a sprained knee is in good health.

Salmon are still very scarce in the Sacramento river, and although local men have been out steadily only a few fish have been taken. Dave Barry landed the biggest fish of the season last Tuesday when he pulled in a 40 pounder.

The shipyards of the Sacramento Transportation Co. continue to be very busy, although nearly all boats and barges have been overhauled during the winter months. If the stage of the river permits the dry docking of boats and barges during the spring and summer, a full crew of men will be retained by the corporation At the present time there are about forty men engaged in the shipyards.

Mrs. I. K. Manchester and Mrs. O. P. Cook will represent the Washington Parent-Teacher Association at the meeting April 11th of the Third District Federation in Woodland.

Sheriff J. W. Monroe came over last Tuesday from Woodland on business.

D. C. Gregory has returned from Los Angeles where he visited relatives.

Mrs. Herman Garber has gone to Oakland to visit her mother, Mrs. William Edenson.

The Easter vacation of the Washington School was set for April 7th to April 17th at a meeting last Monday of the trustees.

Mrs. Henry Jasper of Wheatland was guest of honor Monday evening at a birthday dinner given at the A. M. Cameron home by Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. F. L. White, Jr. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jasper, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Moddison, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. White, Jr., Mrs. Jeanette Brock and son, Norton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Eugene have returned from a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, in Fallon, Nev.

The girls of the Sunbeam Class of the Washington Community Church will give an April Fool's party Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. A. M. Cameron.

Dorma L. Freese, incumbent, has announced his candidacy to succeed himself for the office of School Trustee for the Bryte district. The election will be held Friday afternoon at the Bryte school.

The Bryte Improvement Club will give a dance Saturday night at the school.

Julius Noyes is improving his property by the construction of a new garage.

DEATH BLOW MAY END LIFE OF DAN FOLEY

At the point of death with a fractured skull, Daniel Foley lies unconscious at the White Hospital in Sacramento with scarcely a chance for recovery.

Last Saturday night on his way home, when close to the Capital Candy & Cracker Co.'s factory on the Southern Pacific bridge, Foley was dealt a powerful blow with a blackjack or other blunt instrument that fractured his skull about seven inches. The exact time cannot be said for about 8:30 he was found clinging to the rail of the bridge between the center of the draw and the stairway at the western end.

He was picked up by Mrs. Olga Machado and her husband, who were on their way to Sacramento in an auto.

They conveyed him immediately to the home of his mother at Fourth and Anne streets. Physicians were called and ordered him removed to a hospital.

Since he was found clinging to the bridge rail he has not regained consciousness.

Last night his condition was precarious. He was still unconscious and evidently in great pain.

His physicians extend no hope for his recovery and his friends are at a loss to know why he was so badly treated, except that a bandit beat him and robbed him and then made his escape.

Foley has been in the employ of the Wood-Curtis Co. for more than thirty years. He was the soul of fidelity and an example of constancy. Seldom or never did he miss a day at his work.

He was abstemious to a fault, not even indulging in soft drinks.

Sacramento and Yolo officers are running down clues that may lead to the arrest of the bandit.

SYLVADA M'DONALD LEADS IN QUEEN CONTEST FOR SCIOTS

In the contest for Queen of the Sciots Industral Show that will be held in Sacramento near the end of April, Miss Sylvada McDonald of Washington lead all competitors last Wednesday.

Last Thursday she was displaced by another young lady but today she holds second place once more.

Miss McDonald is in this race to win a valuable prize and in addition to rule over a show that promises a week of fun and diversion.

The honor is no mean one and friends of the young lady feel she is just the kind of girl who would grace the celebration and do honor to her home town.

She is in a hard fight, however, and is at the disadvantage of being a poor girl, while society girls of the Capitol City have wads of backing and coin to spare.

Miss McDonald is the sole support of her mother. Since she was sixteen years old she has been at work with the Southern Pacific Co. in the freight office at Front and J streets, and so highly is she esteemed there that every man in the institution is behind her with might and main to win the honor for her and get her the first prize.

It is understood also that Union Labor men have adopted her as their choice in this contest.

Every young man in Washington and every girl of the town has buckled on their armor to fight for Sylvada McDonald. They have made up their minds that she will be Queen of the Sciots celebration to reign for a week and to win the prize offered in the contest.

Miss McDonald will not be the first young lady of Washington to be honored in a similar way.

Several years ago Miss Aileen Newton (now Mrs. R. G. Steven), was elected May Queen. Later Miss Wolf was May Queen in Woodland, and still later Fern Todhunter filled a similar place in another competitive position.

This time the people of Washington and Yolo County want Sylvada McDonald for Queen of the Sciots Industrial Show.

BANK CLEARINGS SHOW STEADY INCREASE

For the week ending Thursday, March 30, the bank clearings of Sacramento showed an increase that is well worth noting, especially when it is known that in many other parts of the United States there has been a steady decrease.

The reading this week shows:

For week ending March 30, 1922	$4,029,837.96
For week ending March 30, 1921	3,994,101.09
Increase	$35,736.87

YOLO BOARD OF TRADE AND GRAND JURY WILL MEET AT CLARKSBURG APRIL 3

When the Yolo County Board of Trade directors meet next Monday, the members thereof will assemble in Clarksburg, not for any other reason than to become acquainted with a fast developing country. Gus Olsen, head of the farm bureau there, is chairman of a committee on reception and entertainment, in the hope to make the session all that it should be.

It is the first of a series of meetings to be held, under a new policy to better acquaint the board of trade with the requirements and the general conditions in various parts of the county.

Recently the Davis Business Men's Association evolved the idea of visiting farms and stock ranches in the vicinity of Davis, with the result that recently the college town men discovered that within a radius of twelve miles in and about Davis there were more prize winning stock of state, national and international possibilities than in any similar area in the United States.

The Yolo board of trade directors plan to emulate the Davis business men in this respect.

The Clarksburg district of Yolo County and the Netherlands and West Sacramento districts have been badly neglected by Yolo County officials for many years.

Rarely, if ever, have county officials visited those districts and so gross is this neglect that some of the county officials are unknown to the voters of these districts.

Sheriff Monroe is an exception to this charge for he frequently sees the people of those districts in a social or official way.

The meeting next Monday will be a pleasant exception that should result in much good.

Roads in the above mentioned districts are about to be improved. At this writing they are in poor condition and in order to understand that condition the county officials should go along with the board of trade and grand jury to view conditions as they are.

Complaint was heard some time ago about the high cost of running the Clarksburg ferry, but when an accounting was made there was no further kick.

It was shown that this ferry transports across the river about 4,000 autos every month, or more than 100 every day.

It was shown also that nearly 10,000 passengers use this ferry every month.

These reclaimed districts are bringing vast wealth to the county. Great amounts are being paid into the country treasury by taxpayers of these districts.

They are deserving of attention and this step of the board of trade is only just recognition for a growing territory.

TOWN HALL IS NEARLY READY FOR PICTURE SHOWS

Broderick, March 20, 1922.

Editor Independent-Leader:

Dear Sir—I, as a taxpayer, voter and a resident of the town of Washington, would like to know if the Town Hall belongs to the people or if it belongs to the two elected Fire Commissioners as a theatre or a playhouse?

GEO. PATTERSON.

Presumably the writer is fully aware that the town hall is the property of the people to be used for their purposes under the control of the elected Fire Commissioners.

This understanding has prevailed for many years and has not lately changed, but it seems the question was prompted by the report that the town hall has been rented by the Fire Commissioners to be used as a moving picture show house by Dr. T. H. Dixon of Knights Landing and Oakland.

Many taxpayers of the town are of the impression that the building should not be rented permanently for a show house. This would prevent it being used for public meetings and other community purposes.

If proper reservations were made in such renting there might be no objection.

The Independent inquired yesterday from the Fire Commissioners if any reservations were made and was told there was no information to be given out now except that the show would likely open sometime during the middle of next week.

Alterations have been made in the building in the way of fixing an operating room.

Yesterday workmen were fastening the seats to the dance floor with screws but were stopped by Supervisor Leinberger and Judge Barry.

Such procedure would ruin the dance floor, a fact that all taxpayers would resent.

It is understood that the Fire Commissioners have contracted the hall to Dr. Dixon for a year at a rental of $25.00 per month. This is a fair rental and would help to keep the building in repair.

There is no real objection, it appears, against renting the hall for a show house if only the proper reservations are made in a binding lease.

PURCHASE OF S. F. SHORT LINE BY W. P. NOT CONTEMPLATED

San Francisco, March 29.—"I can assure you there is not a word of truth in the report."

This is the way C. M. Levey, president of the Western Pacific Railroad, today answered a question as to a report from Chico that the Western Pacific contemplates the acquisition of the Sacramento-San Francisco Railroad.

The electric line connects Sacramento and Oakland with a ferry connection with San Francisco.

Levey said surveys for the contemplated extension of the Sacramento Northern Railroad, now a Western Pacific property, from Woodland to Vallejo, via Vacaville, Winters and Suisun, was steadily progressing.

FIRE COMMISSIONER ELECTION PROMISES NEW LIFE

Next Monday there will be more interest in the election of three Fire Commissioners than there has been for years.

Although little interest prevailed concerning the election during the past few weeks a new and unexpected feature has cropped up to stir popular interest.

Some time ago the present commissioners announced they would not be candidates again. Subsequently they rented the town hall for a moving picture show house and immediately ears began to prick up.

A few weeks ago the candidacy of J. S. Lear, Sid Rickard and Dave Barry was announced. They held the field for several weeks without opposition but now again it has been reported the old Fire Commissioners are in a receptive mood.

The election will be held next Monday afternoon between 2 p. m. and 6 p. m.

The election officers are Mrs. A. A. Dassonville, Mrs. F. De Riso and Mrs. I. K. Manchester.

FIRST COMMUNION AND CONFIRMATION NEXT SUNDAY

In the Church of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament next Sunday morning, ten young children will receive their First Communion at the 9 o'clock Mass.

The children have been prepared for this solemn occasion by Rev. Father Marcucci.

At the 10:30 a. m. Mass in Riverbank a class of eight children will receive their First Communion from Rev. Father Marcucci.

At 3 p. m. Right Rev. Bishop P. J. Keane will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of about twenty-five children and adults in the Catholic Church in Washington.

Special preparation has been made for both occasions by Rev. Father Marcucci and an augmented choir will render appropriate music and singing in the morning and afternoon.

The solemn ceremony of Confirmation will draw a large crowd in the afternoon, especially because Bishop Keane will be assisted by several priests from Sacramento.

and depression that required a battery of medications. Abandoned by his friends and feeling lonely, he turned to an unusual hobby that would change his life.

Tony began corresponding with some of America's most dangerous psychopaths and murderers. Through graphic letters, the convicts recounted many of the most heinous details of their atrocious crimes. Tony found the contacts exciting, but they came at a price when he realized he was being drawn deeper and deeper into their violent world of murder, rape and torture.

He exchanged letters with 30 serial killers, among them Arthur Shawcross, the Genesse River Killer; Joseph F. Metheny, a cannibal who shared his recipe for human flesh sandwiches; David Gore, the sadist rapist from Florida; and Richard Allen Davis, who kidnapped, molested and killed 12-year-old Polly Klaas.

Written by Pete Earley, author of several New York Times bestsellers, "The Serial Killer Whisperer" tells the story of how an injured and tormented young man found healing and closure in a most unlikely way -- by connecting with some of this country's most vicious monsters.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 877-484-9942 or visit this Internet Web site www.USA-Foreclosure.com or www.Auction.com using the file number assigned to this case 7307.24774. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Date: March 12, 2012 NORTHWEST TRUSTEE SERVICES, INC., as Trustee David Ochoa, Authorized Signatory 1241 E. Citizen's committee: sell no school district property, but consider consolidation

A citizen's committee charged with studying the real estate owned by Washington Unified School District has recommended that the district not sell off any "surplus" property at this time.

But the committee recommended that WUSD "evaluate the advantage of consolidation of site usage or joint facility usage to make any future liquidation easier."

"For example," it told district officials, "if the District Administrative Offices (at 930 Westacre Road) were moved from their current location, the city block they vacate would become more marketable for development. . . (T)he District Offices, the Yolo Education Center, and surrounding properties hold a higher potential for development based on the proximity to transit and city services."

Committee members were Carrie Buchmiller, Dani Langford, Ron Morazzini, Karri Pina, Diane Smith, Matthew Wilkins, Patricia Flint, Larry Langford, Don Stauffer, Henry Walker and Dave Blake.

West Sac Police Dept. offers new neighborhood alert system & smartphone 'app'

Sergeant Nathan Steele of the West Sacramento Police Department announced this month that the department is making new ventures into "social media" and communications.

Using the "Nixie" system, citizens can sign up to receive information from police as a text message on their cell phone or by email. Citizens can also find notifications from W.S.P.D. at www.nixie.com.

"Messages may include traffic alerts, at-risk missing persons, road hazards, as well as other relevant safety and community event information," said Steele in a press release.

The messages can target people within a quarter-mile radius of a targeted area, "giving them the opportunity to receive trustworthy information relevant only to their neighborhood," he added. "Residents decide from which local agencies they want to receive information.

Get information and register at www.nixie.com.

The department has also launched a new "app" for Android or iPhone smartphones.

The MYPD app, produced by Wired Blue, allows you to access all of the local police department's social media platforms, submit crime tips including photos or GPS location, access the W.S.P.D. phone directory, provide feedback to the department, participate in surveys, and go to the W.S.P.D. web page for information such as crime statistics.

You can get download the MYPD App by Wired Blue free from the Android Marketplace or iPhone App Store.

The idea of Go Figure is to arrive at the figures given at the bottom and right-hand columns of the diagram by following the arithmetic signs in the order they are given (that is, from left to right and top to bottom). Use only the numbers below the diagram to complete its blank squares and use each of the nine numbers only once.

"Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close" (PG-13) -- Movies are meant to press buttons and make the audience feel things, but this one just mashes on the keys like a toddler at a piano. A boy who lost his father on 9/11 finds a mysterious key and decides it must be a clue to something important left behind by his father. It's not enough of a plot to pull the audience in, but it's enough to have us following an unlikable child as he has curt, systematic conversations with people around New York. At some point, the boy befriends an old man who doesn't talk, presumably to add more quirk to his adventure.

Footage and imagery from 9/11 are mixed in to add emotional weight to the journey of Odd Boy and Mute Man, thus proving something we didn't need to know: Memories of a horrible collective tragedy will make an audience sad, but it doesn't mean the movie is hitting home.

Keira Knightly, Michael Fassbender

"A Dangerous Method" (R) -- David Cronenberg adapts a page out of history for this story about the beginnings of psychoanalysis. Carl Jung (Michael Fassbender) is an early adopter of the treatment developed by Sigmund Freud (Viggo Mortensen). Jung takes the beautiful and emotionally disturbed Sabina Spielrein (Keira Knightley) as a patient. The two end up in an affair that tests everything Jung thought he knew about ethics and the human psyche.

True to Freud's thinking, all the refinement and intellectual elements in the movie are in orbit around sexual and competitive desires. The cast is solid, but the tension of the movie has mood swings -- things will either be sizzling or just a bit better than dull.

"Romantics Anonymous" -- This French import contains levels of whimsy and sweetness that would not pass American movie-making inspections. Angelique is a chocolate-maker with a crippling shyness. Her boss, Jean-Rene, is overcome by insurmountable awkwardness. You can see where this is going.

The two go about courting like a pair of uncoordinated puppies. Hold on tight to the subtitles -- the dialogue is actually quite funny and can save you from going into a diabetic coma during this adorable, hyper-sweet romcom.

DOG OF THE WEEK

"Alvin and the Chipmunks: Chipwrecked" (PG) -- Tragedy strikes as the Chipmunks get shipwrecked on a remote island while the writers scramble to remember what is funny. In case the returning cast of humans fooled you, this isn't one of those awful-looking sequels where the franchise pulls up and tries some new things. This is the normal kind of awful-looking sequel, where the nose-dive continues far into the ground. Children deserve better than this.

Cabbage Has the Right Stuff

Nutrition experts recommend that you eat cabbage or other cruciferous vegetables -- meaning "cross-bearing" from the shape of their flowers, whose four petals resemble a cross -- as part of a healthy diet. They suggest you eat at least 2 cups, 3 to 4 times per week. Cruciferous vegetables include cauliflower, cress, bok choy, broccoli and similar green leaf vegetables. I love cruciferous vegetables, but I've found cabbage to be the most versatile of the group.

Cabbage is a good source of vitamins C and A. When choosing cabbage heads, select those that are firm and dense with shiny, crisp, colorful leaves. Examine the leaves to make sure that they're free of cracks, bruises and blemishes. Severe damage to the outer leaves means there is probably worm damage or decay in the inner core as well.

We enjoy stuffing cabbage leaves with a variety of interesting ingredients. This recipe for Cabbage and Potato Cups makes a great weekday side dish, or a unique appetizer when topped with thin slices of crispy Prosciutto or Parma ham, or bacon crumbles. Remember, eat more cabbage (or other cruciferous vegetables) and improve your health!

CABBAGE AND POTATO CUPS

1 medium onion, diced
2 tablespoons olive or vegetable oil, plus more for drizzling
1 (3 pound) head leafy green cabbage; discolored, damaged or tough outer leaves discarded
1 teaspoon minced garlic
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/2 teaspoons black pepper
2/3 cup chicken broth or water
2 pounds large boiling potatoes
1 cup buttermilk, shaken
1 cup, coarsely grated, extra-sharp white Cheddar or Pepper Jack cheese
1 tablespoon drained, bottled horseradish
8 tablespoons unsalted butter
3/4 cup Panko or fresh bread crumbs

1. Cook onion in oil in a large, heavy skillet over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until soft and golden, about 6 to 8 minutes.
2. Bring a 6- to 8-quart pot of salted water to a boil. Remove and discard the core of the cabbage and carefully lower the cabbage leaves into the boiling water using a slotted spoon.
3. Boil cabbage about 5 minutes, or until softened. Transfer the largest leaves (at least 6) to a bowl of ice water to stop cooking. Transfer remaining cabbage to a colander to drain. Transfer large leaves to paper towels to drain, then pat dry.
4. Using a nonstick muffin tin with 6 (1-cup) muffin cups, lightly spray each muffin cup or oil with 2 tablespoons of butter. Cut parchment or wax paper into 12 (10- by 2-inch) strips. Put 2 strips in a crisscross pattern in each cup to help with removing cabbage. (You will have a 2-inch overhang.) Line each cup with a large cabbage leaf. Coarsely chop enough remaining cabbage to measure 3 cups, then add to onion along with garlic, 1/2 teaspoon salt and pepper, and water, and cook over moderate heat, stirring occasionally, until cabbage is tender and browned, about 10 minutes.
5. Put oven rack in middle position and preheat oven to 350 F.
6. Use at least 2 cups of leftover mashed or baked potatoes with the flesh scooped out. Alternately, peel raw potatoes and cut into 1-inch cubes, then cover with cold salted water by 1 inch in a 2- to 3-quart saucepan and bring to a boil. Cook potatoes until tender, about 15 minutes. Drain in a colander, then set potatoes in colander over saucepan to steam-dry, uncovered, 5 minutes. Using a large bowl and a slotted spoon or potato masher, mix the potatoes with the buttermilk, cheese, horseradish, remaining 6 tablespoons butter and remaining 1 teaspoon salt and pepper until combined well.
7. Fill each cabbage leaf with 2 to 3 tablespoons of mashed potato mixture. Then, place a layer of the sauteed cabbage mixture on the potatoes. Top with remaining potato mixture, and sprinkle evenly with breadcrumbs. Drizzle crumbs with olive oil. Fold edges of cabbage in toward filling (do not completely cover). At this point, you can cover and refrigerate the Cabbage and Potato Cups for 24 hours. Bring to room temperature (about 30 to 45 minutes) before baking.
8. Bake until heated through and edges of cabbage are well browned, 25 to 30 minutes. Transfer stuffed leaves to plates using wax or parchment overhangs. Makes 6 servings.

SHORTCUT TIP: If you have at least 2 cups of leftover mashed potatoes, or leftover baked or micro-cooked potatoes, mix them with the rest of the stuffing ingredients to save time.

"The Serial Killer Whisperer: How One Man's Tragedy Helped Unlock the Deadliest Secrets of the World's Most Terrifying Killers" by Pete Earley (Touchstone/Simon & Schuster, $24.99)
Reviewed by Larry Cox

This is a disturbing book that is so unsettling it will make most readers squirm.

Tony Ciaglia was 15 years old and at a YMCA summer camp when he was struck by a Waverunner. During the helicopter flight to a critical-care unit, he was pronounced clinically dead three times by paramedics. Later, when he emerged from a coma, he found his right side was paralyzed and faced having to relearn basic tasks such as walking, talking and even eating. The accident had destroyed much of his frontal lobe, an area of the brain that controls emotions and acts as a social filter.

During his recovery, Tony experienced feelings of extreme, uncontrollable rage

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on April 10, 2012, a public hearing as required by Section 147(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, will be held with respect to the proposed issuance, for the benefit of Goodwill Industries of Sacramento Valley & Northern Nevada (including any affiliate thereof, the "Borrower"), by the California Municipal Finance Authority (the "Authority") of its revenue bonds in one or more series in an amount not to exceed $30,000,000 (the "Bonds"). The proceeds of the Bonds will be used as follows (collectively, the "Project"):

(1) for the acquisition, construction, improvement, renovation, furnishing and equipping of certain retail and donation facilities to be located at:

(a) 2050 Town Center Plaza, West Sacramento, California 95691;

(b) 2455 Jefferson Blvd., West Sacramento, California 95691;

(c) 1300 E. Covell Blvd., Suite E, Davis, California 95616; and

(d) 2191 Cowell Blvd, Suite F, Davis, California 95618.

(2) establish a debt service reserve fund for the Bonds; and

(3) to pay certain expenses incurred in connection with the issuance of the Bonds.

The Project is to be owned and operated by the Borrower.

The Bonds and the obligation to pay principal of and interest thereon and any redemption premium with respect thereto do not constitute indebtedness or an obligation of the Authority, the State of California or any political subdivision thereof, within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation, or a charge against the general credit or taxing powers of any of them. The Bonds shall be a limited obligation of the Authority, payable solely from certain revenues duly pledged therefor and generally representing amounts paid by the Borrower.

The hearing will commence at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter can be heard, and will be held at 625 Court St., Room 206, Woodland, California 95695. Interested persons wishing to express their views on the issuance of the Bonds or on the nature and location of the Project proposed to be financed may attend the public hearing or, prior to the time of the hearing, submit written comments.

Additional information concerning the above matter may be obtained from, and written comments should be addressed, to Clerk of the Board, 625 Court St., Woodland, California 95695.
